The Lamb Enters the Dreaming Nathanael Pepper & the Ruptured World.

First Edition; Med. 8vo; pp. xiv, 384; text with numerous b/w. illustrations, notes on sources and bibliography, index, bound in original stiff illustrated wrappers, very good copy.

Carlton North, Vic.; Scribe Publications Pty. Ltd.; 2007.

"The Lamb Enters the Dreaming traces the life of Nathanael Pepper of the Wotjobaluk people, who was born as the first pastoralists were driving cattle and sheep into Victoria's Wimmera region. In their wake came Christian missionaries, who were just as hostile to the settlers' violence as they were to the traditional beliefs of Aboriginal people. Nevertheless, Pepper converted to Christianity in 1860. The extraordinary story of Pepper's conversion, and his subsequent attempts to reconcile the apparently irreconcilable, reveals much about the deeper symbolic and moral forces at work in this collision of cultures." Click here to Order

London; The Hakluyt Society; 1904.
Hakluyt Society, Series II. Volumes XV and XVI. De Quiros obtained royal approval to search for the southern land in 1603. After acquiring three vessels and a crew, including Luis Viez de Torres as second-in-command, he set sail for Callao, Peru on 21st December 1605 in the service of the King of Spain. De Quiros sailed west until he reached a fertile island in May 1606 that he named Australia del Espiritu Santo. There has been much debate over exactly what he had found but some recent thoughts are that his descriptions accurately fit in with Port Curtis, Gladstone and the adjoining Queensland coast. First Edition; Impl. 4to; pp. 176; illustrated with over 150 b/w. photographs, list of illustrations, original grey boards, title lettered in black on spine, black decoration to front board, dustjacket, very good copy.

Fishermans Bend; Thames & Hudson Australia Pty Ltd in association with State Library of Victoria; 2009.

This magnificent collection of photographs arose from the creativity of a young photographer and his adoption of his new home town, Melbourne. Today Mark Strizic is renowned as a photographer. In the 1950's he was a young science student from Europe playing with the possibilities of the camera. The versatility of his work shows us many aspects of 1950's Melbourne - its magnificent architectural heritage, its intimate and vibrant laneways, its grand arcades counter-posed against the sudden spaces created by the new development, the brash intrusion of the glass and concrete skyscrapers, the poignancy of poverty in the run-down inner suburbs. Click here to Order
