Memorandum Of The Transactions Of A Voyage From England To Botany Bay 1787-1793. A First Fleet Journal.

First Edition; Demy 4to; pp. x, 182, (iv); illustrated frontispiece, bound in original red cloth, title lettered in gilt on spine, chipped dustjacket, otherwise a very good copy.

Sydney; The Trustees Of The Public Library of New South Wales in Association with Angus and Robertson; 1965.

Easty was a private marine, with very little education. By no means a model soldier, but one who drinks and disobeys with the rest of them, and receives his share of floggings. With unpracticed hand, he scrawls and splashes his way across the page, noting down the trivia and tragedy of day-to-day existence in the new settlement. The printed text conforms as closely as possible to the original manuscript, preserving the author's peculiarities of spelling and punctuation, and the corrections and alterations which he made. First Edition; Med. 8vo; pp. xxiii, 697; index; original cloth, chipped dustjacket, some spotting on top edge, name on front free endpaper, good copy.

Canberra; Australian National University Press; 1972.

The book gathers together for the first time in one place annotated descriptions of manuscripts held in Great Britain and Ireland relating to Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific. The work gives the location for a vast amount of source material held in the great collections of the British Isles, national and regional, and also in the records of societies and businesses, and private holdings, many previously unknown. It describes the repositories, notes many books which have printed the manuscripts in full, records restrictions on the use of manuscripts, and is fully indexed. Click here to Order
